

HB 216 -- ETHICS

SPONSOR: Quade

This bill grants the Missouri Ethics Commission power to prosecute both civil and criminal matters falling under their existing jurisdiction if the Office of the Attorney General declines to prosecute based on the recommendation of the commission. If the commission chooses to prosecute the matter, then it has the same powers and duties as the Office of the Attorney General.